

Fit for a President

Challenge: Your task is to make the perfect “political” sandwich for the president.

Time: You will have 5 minutes to use your IMAGINATION to create a PERFORMANCE in which a “political” sandwich is fed to a president who is starving for something “good” to eat, and up to 3 minutes to present your performance.

The Scene: It’s the day before the election and the President is watching the returns. He suddenly realizes that he is both starving and desperate for some good political news. His aide calls the DI Political Catering Company to whip up something fast and bring it right over. What are you going to serve? This is your chance to win a “culinary landslide!”

Materials:

- 1 paper bag
- 1 block of Play-Doh®
- 4 ping pong balls
- 1 roll of masking tape
- 6 rubber bands
- 2 paper plates
- 6 mailing labels
- 6 color markers (may not be used as part of the performance)

Scoring: You will receive

- A. Up to 40 points for the creativity of the sandwich
- B. Up to 30 points for the creativity of the performance
- C. Up to 20 points for how well your team works together
