

Attention Current and Potential DIers,

A fabulous thing is about to happen! Soon the Tournament season will start and once again there will be scripts to be written, adrenaline pumping Instant Challenges to solve, building of sets, props, or structures—in short, Destination ImagiNation® is starting up for another program year.

Some of you may be questioning what is Destination ImagiNation (DI)? How do I participate in Iowa? The answer is amazingly simple; check out our Web site at <http://www.cre8iowa.org>! The Students for a Creative Iowa Web site is full of Instant Challenges waiting to be mastered, tips on how to form a team, information on the DI program, and this fall features an in-depth look at making mundane materials work in new and creative ways.

So, form your team, start collecting props and materials and fill a box to the brim, and keep those tools close at hand. Make this a DI season to remember. Perform for friends (maybe they'll get the urge to become DIers, too), perform for parents (maybe they'll want to become co-Team Managers), and perform for strangers on the street (maybe they'll want to donate to your Team war-chest).

Whatever you do and however you do it, getting into DI mode is a great way to improve your creative problem-solving skills and have a blast all school year long! Not to mention that you may have a leg up on the competition if you get started right away. Even if you cannot participate in the DI program, keep those creative ideas flowing by checking out the information on our Web site.

If you have any questions or concerns email us at cre8iowa@gmail.com.

See you this season!

Sincerely,

Jay Swords
